(x) – if there is a slot or maximum size limit for any species in place at the time of the SSSFD, only fish within that slot limit will be accepted at the weigh scale;

(xi) – In the event of a “tie” or “draw” (equal weight) for the largest salmon or halibut at the official scale, the fish weighed in first as per the weighmasters derby time clock will be judged the winner;

(xii) - fish are not to be cleaned, gutted or physically damaged prior to being weighed in; and,

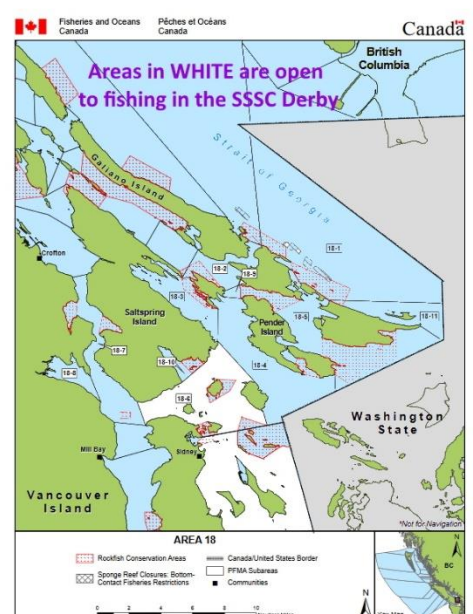

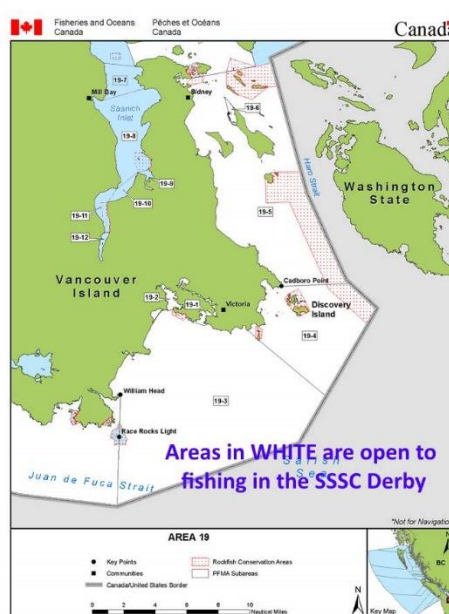

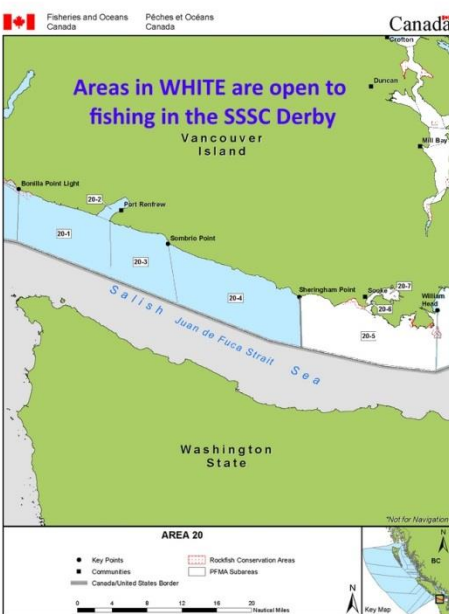

(xiii) – any person attempting to weigh in fish caught illegally, not in compliance with derby rules, caught outside the boundaries and/or caught outside the derby times will be disqualified immediately.

4. Fishing Boundaries

Please refer to the maps below that outline the official Salish Sea Salmon Challenge fishing boundaries.

SSSFD contestants may fish in Canadian tidal waters off: Sidney, Oak Bay, Victoria, Esquimalt, Colwood, Metchosin, East Sooke and Sooke, where those areas are open to recreational fishing. For reference purposes the fishable areas of the SSSC Derby are within DFO Fisheries Management Areas 18-6, 19-3, 19-4, 19-5 and 20-5.

Any contestants fishing outside the fishing boundaries during the derby or attempting to weigh in a fish found to be caught outside the official boundaries will be disqualified. PLEASE NOTE: Sheringham Point is the Juan de Fuca westernmost SSSC Derby boundary; therefore, Port Renfrew is outside the fishing boundaries. Fishing in US waters is not permitted.

SSSC DERBY BOUNDARY MAPS – Fishing area includes Canadian waters open to tidal-water recreational angling from the South Vancouver Island shoreline to the international US border in DFO Fisheries Management Areas 18-6, 19-3, 19-4, 19-5 and 20-5.

- (vi) – in the event of any dispute the derby organizers decisions will be respected and deemed as final; and,
- (vii) – SSSFD officials have the right to conduct further examination or inspection of disputed or suspect catches that are in contention to win any prize, draws or event contests.

7. Salish Sea Spring Fishing Derby Prize Board, Special Draws and Awards Event

There will be ONE (1) Cash Prize award to the largest legally caught salmon.

There will be ONE (1) Cash Prize award for the largest legally caught halibut.

There will be ONE (1) Merchandise Draw Prize drawn from the pool of SSSFD tickets sold.

The two main cash prizes will increase in value as more SSSFD tickets are sold. The more tickets sold the higher the two cash main prizes will be. Expect Cash prizes in excess of $2,000.

There will also be prize raffles, 50/50 and other separate draws available at the SSSFD Cheanuh Marina weigh station and tickets to those can be purchased from the weigh scale staff or in advance online.

All Prizes and Draws will be awarded once the weigh scale is closed and all fish are weighed in.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The main cash draw prize will be awarded shortly after the weigh scale closes at 4:00 PM on Saturday March 26th, 2022. All SSSFD ticket holders are eligible to win the main merchandise draw prize and you do not need to weigh in a fish to be eligible. To claim the draw prize the winner must present their winning ticket that matches the number drawn to an SSSC Derby official. Fishing Derby winners, draw and raffle prize winners will be contacted should they not be present to collect their prize at the end of the derby. Derby results and a list of winners will be posted on the SVIAC website following the end of the event.
